Moonlighting is defined as any professional activity outside the course and scope of a resident’s approved training program. Practice activities permitted outside the educational program vary with each program and the academic performance level of each resident.

It is the policy of the Division of Pediatric Urology that employment outside of this residency program shall not be allowed.

Violation of this moonlighting policy could result in disciplinary actions up to and including dismissal from the University of Tennessee GME Program.