"SACK the REBELS" P.A.R.T.Y

Rachael Lundeen and Jason Greene of the College of Pharmacy show "Big Orange" spirit.

Students from the College of Allied Health Sciences enjoy the refreshments and giveaways.

The SAC amphitheatre becomes a sea of orange.

On Thursday, October 3, 1996, the SAC amphitheatre was the location of our "SACK the REBELS" party. Hundreds of students turned out in support of the UTK Volunteers football team. Lunch was served as the "Pride of the Southland Band" played over the stereo system. Popcorn filled megaphones and pom shakers were distributed to those in attendance. Cash prizes were awarded to the banner contest winners, and the football toss was a major attraction to the athletes at heart.

Mike Crane and Matt McGee pose with "Smokey."

"Smokey," a distant cousin of the real UTK mascot, made a special appearance to paw autographs. UTK fan or not, everyone had their fill of food and fun that day at the "SACK the REBELS" party.

The football toss draws a crowd as a Medicine student shows his stuff.

Entertainment Committee members Nick Ragsdale and Joseph Hicks congratulate banner contest winner.

Here's to you Office of Student Life!

An ongoing series of social mixers was kicked off this year known as "5:00 Friday." Sponsored by the Office of Student Life and the SGAEC, these occasions present the perfect opportunity for students from all colleges to get together and unwind from the pressures of studies. The premiere 5 o'clock Friday was held at Jake's Place in the Pinch District. Soon to follow was another successful party at the Memphis Pizza Cafe in Overton Square. Appetizers, pizza and atmosphere were provided free of charge to all the students who came. Feedback from the students is that "5:00 Friday" is a great time.

Christie and Phil Pearson strike a pose for the camera.

Dan Houlden of Fitness Center fame and Jamie Loeffel from the College of Pharmacy turned out for the pizza and fun at the Memphis Pizza Cafe where the ghost of Elvis has been known to haunt.

Abeer Masri, Boriana and Assen Marintchev, Artashes Boyajian, Cary Rue, and Roopa Andhare (the Micro gang) enjoy the good times and appetizers at Jake's place.

Around the World in a Daze

Dishes from around the world will attract a crowd.

An International Affair...

Tom Knapp of Dentistry absorbs the atmosphere.

Assen and Boriana Marintchev, Artashes Boyajian, Abeer Masri, and Zhong Zhao of the College of Graduate Health Sciences enjoy the festivities.

Abeer Masri and Boriana Marintchev watch the games.

Roopa Andhare having trouble passing by the remnants of a broken pinata.

The 1996 version of SpringFest was themed "Around the World in a Daze." Attracting students from all around the campus, the combination of theme and diversity created a multicultural atmosphere. SpringFest '96 truly was an international affair. Students converged on the SAC, sharing in the fun and excitement of this festive occasion. Recipes and dishes from across the globe were served in the breezeway under the shadow of flags from many different countries. At the same time, the amphitheatre played host to numerous games and events. T-shirts and souvenirs were available to commemorate this special day. Thanks to those who helped make this event a success.

Nothing could be better than an ice cream sundae on a warm sunny afternoon. That is exactly what the students got on September 4, 1996. Members of the SGAEC, the Office of Student Life and Student Affairs were serving your favorite flavors with toppings of choice at the SAC that afternoon. Students, faculty, and staff came from all over the campus to enjoy the cool treats, the hot music, and hang out in the amphitheatre with their fellow classmates and co-workers. This event was just another in a long line of good moves made by the Office of Student Life.

Hot day cool treats good move

Devin Yanek provides some live music, adding even more flavor to the event.

Students from around the campus enjoy the flavor of the day.

SGAEC members "serve" the students.

PRIDE OF THE SOUTHLAND BAND

On November 8, 1996, the fabulous "Pride of the Southland Band" marched into Memphis, complete with its flag team and baton twirlers, to perform a concert for UT faculty, staff, students and fans. Once again, the SAC amphitheatre was the chosen location for this memorable event. A huge crowd was on hand to show their support of the Volunteers football team, and to enjoy the tremendous sound of the band's performance. Thanks to the SGAEC, Marriott Dining Services, and The Office of Student Life who were out in full force, providing popcorn filled megaphones, drinks, and pom shakers to the fans.

The Halloween Party with an added touch.

Boo!
FLU

In an effort to scare the flu virus away from our campus, the University Health Services Department offered free flu vaccinations to all UT faculty, staff, and students. Since this was taking place on Halloween day, the Office of Student Life said, "let's make a party out of it." Thousands of people showed up for their flu shot and were rewarded with healthy snacks and treats, as well as a little fun to help ease the pain.

ADVENTURES

a move back to nature...

Each year the Office of Campus Recreation, through its Outdoor Adventures program, provides UT Memphis students several opportunities to enjoy the great outdoors. If you like canoeing, hiking, camping, backpacking, white-water rafting, or just getting out of the city, you are in luck. With all the stress and pressure of being a student, sometimes a move back to nature is just what the doctor ordered.

Student ORGANIZATIONS

It's your move...

The IMHOTEP Society

In 1980 the Imhotep Society became an officially recognized organization on campus, for the purpose of honoring students, faculty, staff, and alumni who have significantly contributed to student life and student process at UT Memphis. It was recognized that many student leaders, in performing their functions and assignments, may have sacrificed high academic accomplishments and thus did not receive recognition through those organizations which traditionally honor students for high academic achievement.

While the principle objective of the Imhotep Society is to reward and recognize student leadership and service on campus, a secondary goal is to inspire students to continue leadership and service roles as alumni of the University.

good move...

A very special thanks goes out to the 1997 Asklepieion yearbook editorial staff for all of their hard work and dedication. To the students who were so helpful, contributing photos and ideas behind the scenes, they are to be commended as well. Without their efforts, your fond memories of UT Memphis might be lost.

To Dr. Pam Moon, for her excellent advice, encouragement, and long hours of proofing, I will always be grateful.

 Recreation

The Office of Campus Recreations has everything a student could want in the way of extracurricular activity. They offer everything from aerobics classes to backpacking and canoeing adventures. UT students are healthier and happier than ever thanks to the Fitness and Wellness program and memories are in the making with all the exciting excursions brought to you by the Outdoor Adventures program. Students also expend some of their more competitive energies through the Intramural Sports program.

"It's been a great year. I'd love to be a fourth year forever!" — Anjali Sahai

"I'm just a guy trying to help people." — Matt Scroggs as quoted by Joe Turbyville

"My favorite day over the last 4 years has to be a tie between January 20, 1995, which was the day I met my fiancée, Merri Shaw, at Union Planters Bank on Madison Ave., and every day since." — Reid Collins

Try as he might, Charlie Seehorn just couldn't get a pulse. Art Pemberton questions Charlie's sanity as he keeps trying.

Lloydetta Stovall is surrounded by friends and classmates at her baby shower.

A good time was had by all — including Meghana Frenchman and Nannie Boone.

Meg Wallis and Rick Johnson join Mark Elkus in his yearbook debut.

Eddie Fincher practices his intubating technique.

"The Highlanders" — Jason and Melanie Gentry, Reid Collins, Merri Shaw, Michelle, and Rebecca Robertson, & Tara and Brent Baldwin.

Clark Archer sets out on the residency interview trail . . . again.

Eddie Fincher and Simone Phillips make rounds with their team.

Chris Garrett gets some "hands on" experience.

As M4's approach their final months of medical school, they have truly mastered the art of test-taking. Here are review questions for graduating seniors. See what you've learned, class of 1997!

- The typical fourth year student's schedule consists of:
 - 8:00 AM wake-up call, 9:00 coffee break, 10:00 coffee break and two-hour lunch.
 - Quick workout after two-hour lunch.
 - Optional lectures after optional rounds.
 - Happy hour at 6:00 PM
 - All of the above.
- The most important function of an M4 is:
 - Going home as early as possible.
 - Matching, matching, matching.
 - Planning spring trips to the Bahamas.
 - Perfecting clerical skills in preparation to write letters and type applications.
 - Trying to recall at least one important fact learned during the first three years.
- The typical number of hours spent at the hospital by a second-semester M4 is:
 - 0
 - 0.5
 - 1.0
 - 1.5 with a coffee break.
- The most memorable thing from the first year of medical school is:
 - The innervation, attachment, insertion and vascular supply of every muscle.
 - The olfactory stimulus of gross lab.
 - Dr. Evans' voice on the Academy-Award winning series, "Histology and Neuroanatomy: It's as easy as saying 'medial longitudinal fasciculus.'"
 - Biochemistry in all its glory.
- The most memorable event from M2 year is:
 - The one weekend we didn't have to study for a Monday test.
 - The premier viewing of "A day in the life of Dr. Jones."
 - The first day of ICS clinic when we actually laid hands on a patient.
 - The Pathology lecture where more than half the class showed up . . . well, almost half.
- Match the following students with what they were/are/will be late for.

|-------------------------|---|
| A. Ojinga Harrison | a. Every Pediatric Outpatient lecture |
| B. Ahmed Nasrullah | b. Histology Practical |
| C. Clark Archer | c. Downing a Mountain Dew before the bride made it to the altar |
| D. BP Jones | d. The first day of residency |
| E. Jenny McGrath Brewer | e. All of the above |
- The reason the Neurology clerkship is required is:
 - To remind the 37 students going into Pediatrics how much they hate adult medicine.
 - Because it is just so damn important.
 - To get a look at Dr. Vasu's Camaro and Bruno Magli shoes.
 - Because so many students at UT choose to go into Neurology.
- The majority of fourth year electives are chosen because:
 - They offer a great opportunity for more patient exposure and further clinical instruction from the faculty.
 - They offer lots of free time with no examination at the end of the month.
 - A student might get to see and scrub with Dr. Britt once, in hopes of obtaining a better chairman's letter.
 - They are offered outside of Memphis.
 - They offer opportunities to practice procedures.
- Can you match these cadavers with the initials of their Class of 1997 dissecting teams?

|-----------------|-----------------------|
| A. Magnum | a. NB, CC, KB, DK |
| B. Wicked Rosie | b. DP, MF, KK, BP, BC |
| C. Smokey | c. AC, AH, DD, RB |
| D. Gertie | d. RJ, SS, SM, AM |
- Your last parting words of advice to M3's, M2's and M1's would be:
 - Don't underestimate the competitiveness of Pediatrics.
 - Pull gently on the umbilical cord.
 - Discuss the couples match before December of your fourth year.
 - Get a job your fourth year; earn the extra money you need with the extra time you have.
(GN/AC.)

Alpha Omega Alpha Beta Chapter of Tennessee

Alpha Omega Alpha is the only national honor medical society in the world. Its raison d'être can be expressed in a phrase: to recognize and perpetuate excellence in the medical profession. $\alpha\omega\alpha$ is organized for educational purposes exclusively and not for profit, and its aims shall be the promotion of scholarship and research in medical schools and graduates, and the recognition of high attainment in medical science, practice, and related fields. To fulfill the role it has set for itself, Alpha Omega Alpha elects outstanding medical students, graduates (house officer), faculty, and honorary members to its ranks. Scholastic excellence is a key criterion, but not only one for election to $\alpha\omega\alpha$: capacity for leadership, compassion, integrity, service to the school and the community at large, and fairness in dealing with one's colleagues are also to be considered.

In an effort to fulfill its goals, $\alpha\omega\alpha$ sponsors a number of programs, including Alpha Omega Day and the annual Distinguished Visiting Professorship, which is designed to enrich the educational environment of the medical school. Moreover, the Society sponsors two annual competitions for students: The Student Essay Awards and the Student Research Fellowships.

Student Government Association

The SGA works throughout the year to maintain and uphold the ideals and standards of both the College of Nursing and the National Student Nurses Association. It provides nursing students an opportunity for participation in self government and encourages an attitude of professional responsibility. It also serves as a liaison for students with the College of Nursing faculty and administrations well as other university administration. Outside the university, community relations are built and maintained. This year the SGA planned community service activities such as raising money for MIFA and collecting toys for underprivileged children at Christmas.

Upper Right: Kevin Taylor RN and Karen Guarino serve the SGA by keeping their respective classes involved and active in SGA events.

Right: Becky Morrison (president) and Jennifer Cathey (vice president) devote countless hours of time to ensure that the SGA runs smoothly.

National Student Nursing Association Convention, Chicago

The Home of the Bulls, The "L", Sear's Tower, The National Institute of Art, Chicago Pizza, and 13 nursing students: what do all of these have in common with UT? In November of 1996 the annual NSNA Convention took place in Chicago. In addition to sight-seeing, shopping, and having fun in the city, we learned about many different areas of nursing. The convention lasted two days, and we discussed ways to improve the nursing profession and how we as students can be influential.

Upper left: UT students enjoyed seeing Chicago during their visit for the NSNA convention.

Above: Paige Friday, Becky Morrison, Shirley Patterson, Byron Mitchell, and Shunta Adams are among the thirteen students attending the convention.

Left: Jennifer Ruda and Susan Ford shop 'til they drop in Chicago.

"Stick"-or-Treat

On October 31, 1996 the BSN students gave flu vaccinations which were available to all students, faculty and staff. Students and instructors dressed in Halloween costumes and enjoyed refreshments. This was an excellent way to gain experience in giving vaccinations.

Above: Vaccinations at UT first requires proper identification and registration.

Above: Karen Guarino prepares vaccines for UT faculty and staff.

Clinical Candidids

BSN students are offered a variety of clinical settings to perfect their nursing skills. The Veteran's Administration, UT Bowld, and St. Jude are used to practice medical/surgical skills. The V.A. is also used for psychiatric experience. The Crisis Stabilization Unit, the Midtown Mental Health Center, and the Memphis Mental Health Center are also available for off-unit experiences to UT nursing students. This diversity of situations allows us to become more well-rounded in our professions.
