A. Nomination of PTR Committee members

1. Each PTR Committee shall include three (3) members.
a. The faculty member under review nominates three (3)
i. one from within the division/department
ii. two from outside the division/department - either from another department in the college or outside the college
b. The department chair, in consultation with the dean and the division chief, if applicable, nominates six (6)
i. two from within the division/department
ii. four from outside the division/department - either from another department in the college or outside the college
2. PTR Committees are appointed by UTHSC's Chief Academic Officer (CAO) from the nominees provided by the faculty member under review and that faculty member's department chair.
3. The only purpose for which the PTR Committee is appointed is to conduct PTR.
B. Requirements for Nominees

The faculty member under review and the department chair may jointly prepare their list of nominees or prepare their lists independently.

Nominees must meet all of the following specifications. If not, the names of different nominees must be submitted.

|  | Faculty Member's Nominees |  |  | Department Chair's Nominees |  |  |  |  |  |

Nominees may not be relatives of the faculty member under review (as defined in the HR0115: Employment of Relatives policy).

If the lists of nominees are prepared independently, the department chair must share his/her list of nominees with the faculty member under review, who may ask that one of the nominees from the department chair's list be removed.

After the faculty member's review of the department chair's list, the department chair shall forward the list of nominees to the Associate Vice Chancellor for Faculty Affairs (Cindy Russell), who serves as the CAO's designee for managing the PTR process.

Information to be submitted by the department chair includes the following:

1. Full name of each nominee
2. Department (and, if applicable, division) assignment of each nominee

C. Composition of the PTR Committee

In composing the PTR Committee, the CAO will ensure that the following requirements are met.
