ASKLEPIEION is a word derived from the name of Aesculapius, the Greek god of medicine and healing. Aesculapius was honored and worshipped throughout the Greek world by persons seeking the healing powers of the physician. Temples were erected in honor of Aesculapius near healing springs or high mountains. Those who worshipped him were known as Aesculapae. Therefore, the temples in his honor were known as Aesculapions (Asklepieions). In the ancient city of Memphis, on the Nile River, there was a temple where persons went for worship and for care. In our own city of Memphis, on the Mississippi River, people come to our Asklepieion for healing and care. — Bill Robinson, Associate Vice Provost, Student Services.

O. D. Larry makes history

By William C. Robinson

MEMPHIS — O. D. Larry, Student Alumni Center Operations Manager, will retire in June, 1991, after celebrating his fiftieth anniversary with the University of Tennessee. Larry began his very long and dedicated career at the University of Tennessee, Memphis on August 4, 1940. At age fourteen, he joined the staff as a porter at the old student center, Rex Hall, located at the corner of Dunlap and Madison. His monthly salary was $30.00 which he says was a nice wage for the times. Soon after beginning as a porter, Margaret Webster, the University Center Cafeteria Manager, trained and promoted O.D. to waiter and, by the time he was seventeen years of age, he was named head waiter. World War II called O.D. into military service in 1944 and, after serving for one and a half years in the U.S. Navy, he returned to work as a waiter in the old University Center cafeteria. At age twenty-two, he was promoted to custodial supervisor of the old University Center and served in that capacity for many years.

O. D. Larry remembers the Wittenborg Building being both the administrative and classroom facility for the campus. He has seen the campus grow tremendously over his UT career and has personally witnessed the building of the Hyman, Feurt, Crowe, Gailor and Pathology buildings, in addition to the more modern ones, such as the Dunn Dental Building, General Education Building, and of course, the Student Alumni Center complex.

In July, 1979, O.D. was promoted to Manager of the SAC Operations, where he serves today. He also served a dual role and added the duties of Assistant Manager of Dining Services from 1981 until 1986. He is one of the few people who knows the secret recipe for those mouth-watering UT rolls! Many UT administrators, including former UT President Andy Holt, as longest UT Employee

At age 14, O. D. Larry used his first paycheck to purchase a new pair of shoes, a suit and a hat, and had his photograph taken.

(from page 4) would always request O.D. to be the maitre d' and head waiter for their catered and social functions.

When he's not working, O.D. is involved in the social ministry of his church and enjoys spending time with his family. He and his wife, Fannie, have two children, four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. His hobbies include table tennis, billiards, and basketball. He enjoys hunting, but not fishing (because he doesn't like to stay still in one place long enough to catch a fish).

O. D. Larry is to be commended on achieving over fifty years of dedicated and distinguished service to UT Memphis. We know of no other employee who has served the university for this number of years, and the contributions he has made to the campus are outstanding. UT Memphis graduates remember O.D. as a very helpful and caring person. Many come by to say hello when they return to campus for reunions and other campus functions. O.D. indicates that he has seen many students go through UT

Memphis, and that he is now seeing the children and even the grandchildren of many of these former students.

After he retires in June, 1991, Larry plans to devote more time to the social ministry of his church.

Lamar Alexander makes history as Bush Nominee

On Monday, December 18, 1990, President George Bush nominated University of Tennessee President, Lamar Alexander to become the Secretary of Education. Bush said he expected Alexander to help the nation's students to meet higher test results and lower the dropout rates by the end of the decade. Alexander told reporters that his selection "came as a total surprise," and he was pleased with the nomination.

Hands Across the World

International Day

Organized by the International Student Association, "International Day" was proposed to provide an opportunity for people on this campus to share the cultural heritage of different countries," said Horng-Mo Lee, of China. And that it did! Fourteen different countries to be exact — China, Germany, Great Britain, India, Japan, Kenya, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, Philippines, Spain, Taiwan, Turkey, and Vietnam.

The second annual International Day began with Dr. Robert Summitt inaugurating the celebration. The opening ceremony was followed by the world showcase in which the host countries displayed multimedia exhibits depicting aspects of their cultural heritages. Several countries even prepared and served authentic native foods. The exhibition was an actual competition in which countries were judged on five categories — culture/religion, entertainment, history/geography, aesthetics, and friendliness. India was the first-place winner. Second place went to China, and third to Taiwan. Congratulations to the winners!

On the evening of International Day, many students performed in the International Talent Show. Among the presentations were native music and dance, a costume exhibition, an exotic Chinese play and a Kung-Fu performance.

The members of the International Student Association worked many hours in planning and preparing for the event, which was a great success and a wonderful new tradition at UT Memphis!

UT CARING CREW

In September of 1989, the Student Government Association Executive Council, in an effort to reach out to the community, adopted the Church Health Center as its philanthropy. The medical center at 1210 Peabody, provides physical and spiritual care for the working poor of the Memphis community — those who are employed but uninsured, or who can't afford to pay the deductible for medical treatment.

The Church Health Center receives no funding from the government and, though fees are charged according to a sliding scale based on the ability to pay, the fees do not begin to cover the Center's expenses. They are dependent on donations from hospitals, churches, foundations, individuals, and groups such as the UT Caring Crew, who believe that "caring for the needs of the sick and the poor is the responsibility of all people of faith."

Physicians, dentists, nurses and others volunteer their time and services to staff the center, which provides to the greatest extent possible, all the health care services offered by a family physician.

Medical student Maria Newsome has spearheaded many of the fund-raising projects, along with the SGAEC, the MSEC, the BSA, the ASDA and the College of Social Work. Some of the events held to raise funds include Ice Skating Parties, the "Faculty Feud," Spring Thaw, and Mayfest. A holiday "Care Basket" project and chocolate candy sale also raised money for the worthy cause.

In 1989-90, $2500 was raised and, as of February 1991, $1500 had been raised for 1990-91.

The campus-wide efforts put forth by each of the many students who lent a hand at a fund-raising function, sold candy bars, attended an event or simply dropped some change into a collection can, all demonstrate that UT Memphis students are committed to the health care profession beyond classroom and clinical experiences. These are the types of future health care professionals who will go the extra mile to care for the sick and needy. And after all, isn't that what health care is all about?

FALL a look BACK

SGAEC

The 1990-91 Student Government Association Executive Council (SGAEC) set itself to the task of being a proactive student organization. We set forth as a group to establish a position on student drug testing, to promote student awareness of personal safety and to voice student opinions as members of committees on campus. These are goals we feel we have achieved.

The SGAEC participated in the monumental task of drafting a campus wide drug-free policy. This achievement alone put UT Memphis at the forefront of establishing a comprehensive and fair policy, one campuses nationwide will look to as a model.

The SGAEC also began having monthly campus crime reports published in the Student Lifeline, so students could be aware of the safety concerns on campus.

Each member of the SGAEC also sits on several committees at all levels of the administration to make sure the student voice is heard and considered in formulating policies and in making decisions.

We followed in the footsteps of last year's SGAEC and continued to support the Church Health Center as the students' philanthropic project. We sponsored many fund-raising events from care baskets during finals, to movie nights and campus-wide parties.

Other areas in which we have made advances are parking, food service, housing and recycling. These are involved projects, unable to be completed in one school year, but we hope to leave them as legacies to be continued by next year's council.

On behalf of all the members of the 1990-91 SGAEC, it's been a pleasure serving you as the liaison between the students and the administration. Our hope is that we made your life here on campus just a little easier and more enjoyable as a result of our efforts.

The IMHOTEP Society

In 1980, the IMHOTEP Society became an official and recognized organization on campus for the purpose of honoring students, faculty, staff and alumni who have significantly contributed to student life and student process on campus. It was recognized that many student leaders, in performing their functions and assignments, may have sacrificed high academic accomplishments and thus did not receive recognition through those organizations which traditionally honor students for high academic achievement.

While the principle objective of the Society is to reward and recognize student leadership and service on campus, a secondary goal is to inspire students to continue leadership and service roles as alumni of the University.

The College of Allied Health Sciences is composed of many different artists with many different styles. The College includes: Cytotechnology, Dental Hygiene, Medical Records Administration, Medical Technology, Occupational Therapy, and Physical Therapy.

The artists in these fields culminate their art into a diverse collage of services provided within the health care museum. It is their diversity of contributions that make them such an appreciated art form. They add beauty to the patient's life through research, records, and treatment.

The Dentist is the health professional most called upon to provide immediate relief of pain and discomfort. This requires an excellence in diagnostic abilities, judgement, and artistic skills in order to deliver treatment in a gentle manner with compassion and understanding.

To relieve symptoms and restore the smile on a patient's face are some of the many ways Dentistry provides comfort and contributes to the Art of Healing.

IN MEMORY OF:

WILLIAM JAMES WRIGHT, D.D.S. (1950-1990)

Dr. William James Wright, Assistant Professor of Fixed Prosthodontics, died unexpectedly on August 5, 1990. He was a 1978 graduate of UT College of Dentistry and was only 40 years old. After graduation, he had practiced in Jonesboro, Arkansas, until he joined the faculty full-time to teach fixed prosthodontics in 1986. As a faculty member, he earned the praises of his department chairman and fellow faculty members for making rapid progress in his academic career.

Dr. Wright lived in Marion, AR, where he was active in church and civic affairs and was an accomplished musician. He was truly an asset amongst his colleagues, students, and friends.

WILEY L. FOWLER, JR., D.D.S. (1943-1990)

Dr. Wiley L. Fowler, Jr., died suddenly at his home in Lyon, Mississippi, on April 18, 1990 at age 47. He was a part-time faculty member in the Department of General Dentistry, holding the rank of Assistant Professor. Besides serving in the operative clinic, Dr. Fowler taught two courses in practice management. He also maintained a private practice in Mississippi.

Dr. Fowler graduated from UT College of Dentistry in 1971 after completing predoctoral training at Vanderbilt University and George Peabody College in his home town of Nashville. He will be missed by his fellow colleagues and students.

KENNETH G. PRUETT (1965-1990)

The Class of 1991 experienced a tremendous loss with the death of Kenny Pruett in May, 1990. Kenny was an excellent student finishing in the top twentieth percentile in his class at the end of this third year of dental education. He was well liked for his outgoing personality, positive attitude, and friendliness.

Kenny's hometown is Pontotoc, Mississippi. He graduated from Mississippi State University before enrolling at UT Memphis. Throughout his years at UT, he was regarded by faculty and friends as a hardworking and ambitious student. He will be missed by all.

AMERICAN STUDENT DENTAL ASSOCIATION

The ASDA at the University of Tennessee, Memphis, serves as the student governing body of the College of Dentistry. Membership is optional for all students; however, nearly ninety percent of the student body became members. The Executive Council consists of elected representatives from each class, dental fraternity presidents and the Honor Council President. The Executive Council also consists of five positions which are filled by election, by the entire student body. Every Thursday, the Council meets over lunch to discuss matters which need to be "ironed out" in the dental college, whether it is in relation to the administration, faculty, parking services or even student life.

Since September of 1984, the Honor Council in the College of Dentistry has been composed of four students from each class, elected in the spring of their first year of dental school. Prior to this time, six students were elected. It is the collective responsibility of the members of the Honor Council to protect the educational process by addressing possible violations of the Honor Code.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF WOMEN DENTISTS

The American Association of Women Dentists, founded in 1921, is a national organization geared toward the enrichment of women in dentistry. The local chapter, established in 1985, is dedicated to serving the Memphis community and the University of Tennessee.

HONORARY ODONTOLOGICAL SOCIETY

The Richard Doggett Dean and Marguerite Taylor Dean Honorary Odontological Society was formed in 1948. The purpose of this society is "To propagate and perpetuate professional ideals, ethics and techniques in the field of dentistry." Active members consist of UT dental students who have met the high qualifications of this society. They must be in the upper one-half of their class scholastically, have a deep interest in the profession, have gentlemanly conduct and character above reproach. They must also show promise of making important contributions to the profession of dentistry.

CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY HELP PROGRAM

The Chemical Dependency Help Program was founded in 1987 and became active in 1989. It consists of two representatives from each class. The purpose is to help students to be aware of alcohol and drug addictions as a Dental student before they go to a private practice setting, and to educate students about the ramifications of having an addiction in one's career. The program at UT has been quite successful with this approach.

Psi Omega was founded in Georgia in 1842 by William Hamilton and one of his colleagues. Since then, this two-member fraternity has grown to cover the nation and to join thousands of dental students and alumni as brothers. Psi Omega at the University of Tennessee has been an important part of campus life for decades by having numerous campus gatherings. Psi-O was founded to establish a means for students to get to know one another, to form friendships and to help each other. The basis of Psi-O is that there are other outlets besides academics that are important in obtaining a well-rounded education. Psi-O is therefore an active participant in intramural sports, charity fundraisers, and campus parties. Psi Gamma Chapter here at UT is proud of their members and especially excited to have become the largest Psi-O Chapter in the nation!

Delta Sigma Delta was established by far-sighted professional men with vision who possessed the desire to render the best dental services in the highest professional manner. On November 15, 1882, seven dental students met at Mrs. Slattery's boarding house in Ann Arbor and founded the first dental fraternity in the world. It was intended to bring together not only the most talented students of dentistry while in school, but by the establishment of the Supreme Chapter, it brought in the outstanding teachers and practitioners. Professional fraternities have strong faculty support because of the high standards required for the establishment of a chapter on campus. A good scholastic average is an important criterion for membership. Nowhere in the history of Delta Sig's has it been written that we must initiate the largest number of candidates. On the contrary, the literature is replete with the philosophy of selectivity. However, it is the fastest growing chapter in the country.

the forefront of healing

The College of Graduate Health Sciences may not appear to be related to the medical field. It plays a key role in the progress of medicine, however. Using the tools of basic, developmental and clinical research, Graduate Health Science paves the way for the major breakthroughs that medical science uses to practice its healing arts. Through studies in genetics, metabolism, pharmacokinetics and many other diverse fields, one gains a greater understanding of the complexities of life. This work provides the foundation on which further advancements in medicine may be built.

To many people, much of the research performed today may seem too esoteric to be of practical use. In reality, basic research provides us with a greater understanding of life, and helps to solve the mysteries that we must confront — both today and in the future. The path that leads to the solutions of those mysteries begins here; Graduate Health Sciences truly is paving the way for the healing of the future.

Dietetic Internship & Residency Program

Students enrolled in the Dietetic Internship and Residency Program, UT Memphis, complete 900 hours of clinical practice in various practice sites on campus and throughout the Memphis area to become registry-eligible dietitians. The internship is accredited by the American Dietetic Association. The residency portion of the program requires an additional 450 clinical hours of practice. This part of the program is unique to UT Memphis, and its focus is advanced practice in various areas of speciality.

The UT Memphis Dietetic Internship and Residency Program is combined with the Master of Science in Clinical Nutrition at Memphis State University to form the MSU and UT Memphis Cooperative Program in Clinical Nutrition. This two year combined program prepares students as master's level clinical dietitians with advanced practice and research skills. All students are required to complete a thesis. Eight new students are accepted into the program each fall with a total enrollment of 16 students.

SOS Leaders

Because of these three they've changed the name to the Student DISorientation Staff. Amy, Adam and Sandeep look lost, don't they?

So why did you decide to become a scientist?

Why not? — Jon R. Daughtery

For the money. Ha! Ha! Ha! — Mark Kirstein

So I could go through the sheer hell of prelims. — Troy McCall

I had no choice. — Pauline Hsu

I don't know. I ask this question to myself every day. — E.F.

Because I like science. — Kalai Mathee

Because I'm good at it. — Dharmesh Desai

Because bacteria don't talk back. — Carol Devries

Go ask Carol. — Sam Chuang

So I could become a Prof at UT and make Pharm. D. students miserable. — Name withheld on request.

Do you want to know right now? — Laci Kovari

Because I like the way I look in a lab coat. — Amy K. Metzger

I like to do research. — Canan Nebigil

To discover a drug which will grow hair on my head. — Vijay Vashi

Because I stunk at everything else. — Sandeep Nema

The Enlightened Side of

Graduate Health Sciences

Left: They always said GHS was going to be a "cultural" experience.

Clockwise From Above: "Now if I could just figure out which end of this thing is the business end, I'd be doing great."

"Hey man, wanna see something REALLY gross?"

"I'm almost as good at bench work as I am at volleyball . . . Too bad there isn't an intramural pipeting team."

Sandeep came to find the meaning of life only to discover yet another lousy PNAS paper.

Upper Right: "I hate it when Eddie talks technical," Pauline moans.
Lower Right: Would you buy a centrifuge from this man? Roy struts his stuff in the instrument room.

Right: Dean Summit, can we have one of these balloons?

Left: Betcha didn't know that was the editor's camera you were playing with, huh Bob?

Bottom Right: Laura Bautista, Shobha Gopalakrishnan, and Chitra Ganapathy looking ethnic for International Day.

"Medicine is not only a science, but also the art of letting our own individuality interact with the individuality of the patient."

— Albert Schweitzer

"I pray that, even as you attach the highest value to your science, you will never forget that it works best when combined with your art, and, indeed, that your art is what is most enduring in your profession. For, ultimately, it is the physician's respect for the human soul that determines the worth of his science."

— Norman Cousins

Top UT Officials Called to Active Duty

During the weeks leading up to the outbreak of the Persian Gulf War, Americans everywhere anxiously awaited the outcome of peace negotiations between Iraq and the United States and other Allied countries. The reality of war hit home as friends and colleagues, family members and loved ones were called into active duty from the reserve ranks. On January 16, 1991, almost every American watched Operation Desert Shield become Operation Desert Storm as a war began before their very eyes on television.

The Persian Gulf War has had an impact on the lives of many UT Memphis students, faculty and staff members. At the time of the final yearbook deadline (February 21, 1991), one student and over 20 full-time UT employees had left the university to serve in the conflict. Countless others were affected as friends and family members were called to do their part in the war effort.

Two very important people to the campus and the College of Medicine who were called to duty are Dr. Pat Wall and Dr. Richard Peppler. We salute these individuals and all the other U.S. military personnel serving in Operation Desert Storm.

On December 6, 1990, Dr. H. P. (Pat) Wall, Vice Provost for Students and Associate Dean for Student Affairs in the College of Medicine, was called into active service as a member of the 300th MASH (Mobile Army Surgical Hospital) Unit out of Smyrna, Tennessee. Col. Wall was sent to Fort Campbell for briefing, and was then transported to Stuttgart, Germany, where he was stationed at the 5th General Hospital to care for the sick and wounded.

Col. H. P. Wall

Col. Richard D. Peppler

Dr. Richard D. Peppler, Vice Provost for Academic Affairs and Associate Dean for Academic Affairs in the College of Medicine, was called to active duty as a member of the HHC, United States Army Garrison, Fort Campbell, and subsequently was attached to the 3291 United States Army Reserve Forces School. Col. Peppler was fortunate to be stationed in Memphis working with the families of the troops. This service to the country was invaluable.

THE ART OF NURSING IS CARING! Art is self-expression, a way to convey our emotions. Nurses have a passion for human life, happiness, and wellness. When we paint, our hands are the brushes, our smiles are the colors, and those in need are the canvases.

"The Student Nurses Association represents a stepping stone for students into the professional role, increasing student awareness of important issues facing nurses in today's health care system. In such a demanding profession, student nurses need the extensive support system that SNA provides, as well as the leadership opportunities that enable student nurses to improve the nursing profession."

the art of healing

Co-Editors

Pharmacy is the art of preparing, compounding and dispensing drugs and devices, in addition to relating information concerning drugs and their therapeutic uses in the treatment and prevention of disease.

As a painter mixes paint on his pallet, the pharmacist learns to mix and make healing ointments and creams for the patient.

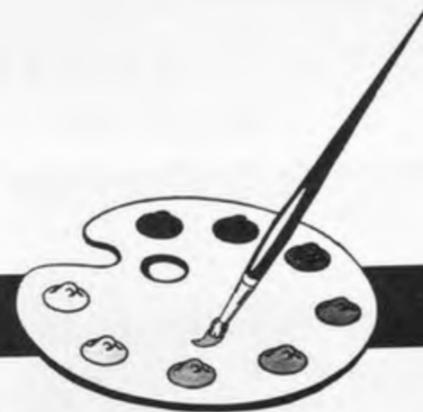

As a sculptor models clay, the pharmacist molds and shapes the patient's knowledge and attitude about drugs through counseling.

As an architect designs impressive new structures, the pharmacist bridges the apprehension and fear of the individual with information, confidence and trust.

Art enhances the lives of people by providing feelings of encouragement and well-being. Pharmacy enhances the health of the individual by providing medicines and devices that restore the well-being of the individual. This is the pharmacist's contribution to the art of healing.

A FINAL FAREWELL

The past four years of pharmacy school has been a combination of both bad and good times. The bad times we remember as P-2's taking a total of ten tests in one month, Pharm Tech Lab, and of course, the third year modules. However, in our endeavor to pursue a higher level of education, we surmounted these problems and in the process shared many good times over the years. There have been many wonderful parties, trips (especially Chicago), and other social events that enabled us to relax and enjoy one another. Yet, the most lasting memories of all will be the friendships, hardships, and togetherness we had while we were here. As we embark upon our careers as Pharmacists, I hope we will not only view each other as professionals in the future, but friends as well.

Let the pages of this annual be a memory lane to you in the future and in doing so, realize that the experiences we have undergone during this period are unique and cannot be relived again. So, cherish the bonds we have made and enter the profession of pharmacy with a zest for learning, teaching, and practicing the skills learned during the past four years.

Class Trip

For our senior trip this year, we accepted Eli Lilly & Company's gracious offer to visit their headquarters in Indianapolis. So, on Oct. 21, our class abandoned its studious image and boarded the bus. Dr. Art Staughn gamely went along with us, but prefaced the trip by saying that he "didn't know any bail bondsmen in Indianapolis and to keep it clean folks!" OK Art, but we were anticipating which outstanding individual would throw caution to the wind and revel with the least self-respect. The competition was fierce, getting off to an early start on the bus (like 6 a.m.). By the time we reached Indy, we pretty much had achieved steady-state on those zero order beverages! Honorable mentions go to birthday kids Sherri Holten and Joe Rasberry, for accepting humiliation with grace (you're a tiger — Joe), She-Ra (aka Barbara Chronister) for maintaining an upright position and the entire back of the bus for keeping that disco beat alive.

In Indianapolis, Joyce McNaughton, the Lilly representative from Memphis, accompanied us around town. We soon found out that Lilly actually runs the city and that just mentioning the company was good for royal treatment and discounts. We had two days of tours, lectures, lunches, and dinners but each night we rallied for the downtown club scene.

Highlights included: "M.C." Richard Randolph funks out on the dance floor, "solid gold" dancers Suzanne Kirk and Anne Reeves help him out and Janie Daniels, Celena Wilson, Greta Heilker and Stacy Jones raised the ire of hotel security by trashing each other with shaving cream. We are happy to report no arrests were made.

After leaving "Lillyanapolis," our bus driver, Ed, drove us to Chicago where we first toured the housing projects in search of our hotel. (Thanks Ed!) Once we arrived, the party action resumed, minus a few rookies who had been overcome by the "bright lights, big city" (or maybe it was just H. flu?)

Memorable moments included: the Searle tour, visiting Sears tower, Phantom of the Opera, the Rush Street clubs, shopping on the Magnificent Mile and Geno's pizza.

Several of us made it on national TV by appearing on the Oprah Winfrey Show. Unfortunately, no one got to make any comments because the topic was losing hundreds of those unwanted pounds.

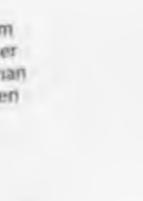

But back to the dance competition . . . everyone knew we were from Tennessee when Tim Pauley belted out "Rocky Top" in the Excaliber Club and Ben Smith ditched his shoes on the dance floor for that real "down-home" barefoot feeling.

The bus ride back to Memphis was less eventful except when we stopped at Sikeston, Missouri to eat at the legendary Lambert's Restaurant (home of thrown rolls). A nursing home bus unloaded minutes before we arrived, forcing us to wait. Tara Moore and Margo Nicks were ready to rumble with the old timers but finally acquiesced and we opted for a seafood buffet at a neighboring truck stop. (YUM!) The Class of 1992 had a heck of a good time. All in all it was an adrenergic stimulator!

We, the Pharmacy Class of 1993, have much to be proud of and thankful for. Some new faces have been added to our ranks this year. Amidst our 75 members are the Presidents of ASP, SNPhA, Phi Delta Chi and Kappa Psi, as well as officers and committee chairpersons from these and other campus organizations. We boast the second most awesome women's flag football team at UT Memphis, and proudly show our colors in this and all intramural and campus-wide events. We enthusiastically participate in leadership seminars, drug fairs, state-wide and nation-wide pharmacy conventions, and patient counseling competitions.

Yet with all these arenas of outside involvement, we make it a priority to remain a class, a unit, a FAMILY. We are the Class of 1993 and proud of it!!

On August 20, 1990, our "professional birthday," the class of 1994 began our Pharmacy career with little knowledge of what the future would hold. We quickly came together as a class, and with the help of "word pictures" we each made 73 new friends. Although there were many opportunities for entertainment in Memphis, we found that classes demanded the majority of our time. Still we learned to attain a balance in all areas of our new life — academic, fun, spiritual, physical fitness, career, family, and community service. We learned to "shift gears" and were able to help each other survive the tests, conferences, labs and never ending study sessions. We look forward to the challenges and opportunities of the future. We are growing together, learning together, and striving to become outstanding Pharmacists.

For Phi Delta Chi, our year was a very exciting and productive one. After a fun-filled Rush, which culminated with a formal at beautiful Woodland Hills, we welcomed our new pledges into the brotherhood with a Pledge Dinner catered by the Public Eye. Among our many projects, we collected clothes for the Metropolitan Inter-Faith Association, participated in blood pressure screenings at Highland Heights Pharmacy, donated blood for SNPHA's annual drive, and collected soup labels for an area elementary school. At Christmas, we spread our Christmas cheer with residents of the Memphis/Shelby County nursing home by caroling and sharing the spirit of the Season. For our Christmas party, children from the Big Brother/Big Sister program shared a special evening complete with a visit from Santa. Our pledges donated their time sponsoring a clothing drive for MIFA and participated in the Toys-for-Tots Program. When we wanted to escape from the pressure of classes, we relaxed by having potluck dinners, watching UT football games, and throwing parties. Our campus-wide parties include our traditionally "wild" Jungle and MASH parties and the earth-shakin' Earthquake Party.

With many brothers serving in key leadership positions in all campus and professional organizations, the brothers of Phi Delta Chi strengthen and advance, not only our own organization, but the entire university as well. That, along with our continued scholastic excellence, help make the brothers of Phi Delta Chi truly "Leaders in Pharmacy".

Kappa Psi

Kappa Psi and UT make an outstanding combination! A professional pharmaceutical fraternity dedicated to promoting the personal growth of each member and improving the pharmacy profession as a whole, Kappa Psi divides its time between community activities and social events. The traditional Welcome Back Party kicked off the 1990 school year and the beginning of a successful Rush period which gave us 46 new pledges. One of the Rush highlights was the 2nd annual canoe trip down the Buffalo River. In the fall, the brothers enjoyed cheering UT on to a victory over Ole Miss at Liberty Bowl Stadium. The celebration continued during the annual Riverboat Party that same evening. The Big Brother/Little Brother Banquet, the trip to the Kappa Psi Province Seven Meeting in Oxford, Mississippi, and intramurals are just a few of the other exciting activities that members of Kappa Psi are a part of. The fraternity's service projects include a fundraiser for the Porter Leath Children's Home, a Christmas Party for the children at St. Jude, food and clothing drives for MIFA, and participation in the school's blood drive. Kappa Psi always looks for ways to help less fortunate members of society while also emphasizing scholastic achievement and enjoyment of the years spent together here at UT Memphis.

Although the Student National Pharmaceutical Association is only in its second year, the organization is rapidly growing. SNPhA's mission is to meet the challenges of the continuously expanding role of the pharmacist, and to direct health care expertise to improving minority communities. In doing so, members were busy this year with several projects, some of which were blood pressure screenings for the elderly, high school and college recruitment, and a campus-wide blood drive competition. Through these activities, each member attempted to increase the awareness and understanding of the public in dealing with some of the nation's most prevalent health issues. By working as a unit in pursuit of charitable and educational objectives, SNPhA has cultivated a service association of students concerned with pharmacy issues, professional development, and the lack of minority representation in pharmacy and other health-related professions.

Organizations

The Pharmacy Student Government Association is the primary student organization which represents the College of Pharmacy. This group also serves as liaison between students, administration, and faculty. The PSGA is composed of a president (elected annually by the entire student body), the president of each class, the president of each of the other student organizations, and a secretary. Dr. Dick Gourley, and Dr. Jim Eoff, serve as advisors. Some of the many PSGA activities include the annual Student Leadership Retreat, Pharmacy Weekend, Philanthropic Support, and Political Action. The PSGA continually strives to represent all pharmacy students and to make life a little better for everyone.

The Honor Council of the College of Pharmacy is responsible for the implementation and administration of the UT Memphis Honor Code. The Honor Code is a student-operated system whose aim is to cultivate the highest academic standards possible for the College. This year the Council debated clarifications involving the Honor Code and completed a school-wide survey to help improve examination environments in the College of Pharmacy. At the same time, the Council's main priority was to make students aware of the Honor Code policies.

The Council's members were chosen to represent their class based on their personal honor and integrity. The Council is comprised of three representatives and one alternate from each of the four classes. The position of a representative can be difficult and this year's Council successfully fulfilled their responsibilities throughout the year.

Rho Chi is an academic honor society that accepts the top 20 percent of the class. It is certainly an honor to be a part of this prestigious group. The members provide several services to the college of Pharmacy including the annual used book sale and the selling of the Remington Pharmaceutical Sciences book and other required textbooks at a reduced cost to students. Rho Chi holds its annual initiation banquet in the spring.

Phi Lambda Sigma recognizes those students who show outstanding leadership qualities in the field of pharmacy. Phi Lambda Sigma is the Pharmacy Leadership Society and it is a great honor to be chosen to be among its members. These members are not only leaders now, but will almost certainly go on to be leaders after graduation and be of great service to the profession of pharmacy.

UT College of Pharmacy

This year the College of Pharmacy is very excited to announce the launching of the international clerkship program. Despite world tensions, nine University of Tennessee students will have the unique opportunity to spend two months abroad learning about the administration, regulations and practice of Pharmacy in seven foreign countries. Through this program our students will be ambassadors for the University of Tennessee and the United States while gaining valuable experiences and unforgettable memories.

INTERNATIONAL

Academy of Student Pharmacists

The Academy of Student Pharmacists is an organization that expands pharmacy education beyond the classroom and introduces students to the workings of the "real world" of pharmacy. ASP offers students the opportunity to develop relationships not only with students from the UT campus, but also with pharmacists and students from the local area, the state, and the nation. ASP's strength as an organization comes from the participation of its members who work on the organization's fifteen different committees. There is a place for everyone. ASP is proud of its membership because it includes almost every pharmacy student. Throughout the year, ASP sponsors many different events such as: ASP day and Patient Counseling Competition in the fall, as well as, the Drug Fair, Geriatrics Day, and the Golf Tournament in the spring. ASP activities wind down with an awards banquet in the spring, which recaps the year, celebrates our achievements, welcomes incoming students, and allows some relaxation before finals.

the art of healing

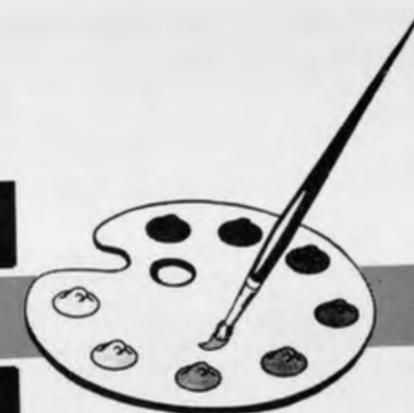

Pam Williams

Editor

Social Work provides the vital connection of people in need to community resources. Paramount to social work is an understanding of human behaviors and societies so as to treat a wide variance of problems.

Perhaps the greatest task before social workers lies in the art of healing the invisible scars buried deep within the souls and psyche of mankind.

A TRIBUTE TO MY FATHER

*May you soar with the eagle
You once told me
Loving, pushing and encouraging every step of the way.
Now you are gone,
but I won't lose heart.
For when I grow faint,
I'll look in the sky for strength
And see your spirit
Soaring with the eagles.*

SOCIAL WORK

The legacy of a great man, Dr. Wilks left his imprint upon our hearts and minds forever. He taught best by his example. He sought to eliminate oppression. He stood for social equality. He reached out in compassion to all who came within his domain. He upheld the highest ideals, ethics and values of the social work profession.

Dr. Wilks encouraged us to strive to do our best in all endeavors. His absence grieves us. His legacy revives us. May we be worthy to tread his footsteps. We will miss him forever and always.

First year students discover . . . papers, exams, research projects, assignments, deadlines, and ask, "What is the meaning of all this?" Later, down the pathway of life, these social workers discover it was worth the effort . . . to offer hope to those who feel hopeless, to help turn dreams into realities for the weary, and to comfort and console those in suffering.

The Art of Healing is a very appropriate theme for the UT Memphis yearbook. The editors have captured this theme through various forms of expression throughout the book. They have been artistic in their approach to developing layouts and writing sentiments to paint a picture of the student experience at UT Memphis. They have given tireless hours of creative energy and hard work to produce this yearbook.

From time to time, an editor is late turning in pages for a deadline because academic demands have robbed all their time. I always say, "your studies come first." They shift their eyes downward, torn between their scholastic commitment and their personal commitment to produce the Asklepieion. I say, "Look, you care enough to devote much of your scarce free time to help with the yearbook, so please don't worry about being a little late once in a while. We appreciate all that you are doing." They usually smile and walk away feeling a little less guilty about the deadline. But they shouldn't feel guilty at all. Thank goodness for the terrific students and staff members who are willing to go the extra mile to produce the Asklepieion year after year!

A special thank you is extended to pharmacy editors Trisha Davis and April McClearn for meeting all the deadlines and turning in their entire section before the final deadline! Great work ladies! Congratulations also to Nursing editors Julie Kussman and Mary Jackson, Allied Health editor Julie Nichols, and Social Work editor Pam Williams for meeting the final deadline. You all did a great job! To Mary Huff, Medicine editor, thank you for your dedication and hard work. You had the largest, most difficult section, and you handled your work with grace, calmness and efficiency, and without the help of co-editors. To Dentistry editors Tina Dutt, Jeff Jaynes and Maricela Rodriguez, you worked great together to put together the second largest section in the book. Congratulations on producing a high quality section! To Sandeep Nema and Amy Metzger, thank you for giving up that valuable research time to put together the Graduate Health Sciences section.

Being on the Asklepieion staff requires much more than creative and artistic ability. It requires dependability, responsibility and motivation. Add all those qualities, plus persistence, patience and leadership and you have the qualities of the person who carefully nurtured, nudged and tugged at the staff just enough to get them to get the job done. Jan Dugan was the strength behind it all this year. Not only was she literally, "leading the pack," she was also behind the camera for a large percentage of the photos, in the darkroom developing and printing film, and supervising student photographers. In her spare time, she was drawing layouts and doing her "regular" job in the Office of Student Life. No wonder Jan was nominated as one of the six top candidates for the Lichterman Outstanding Employee of 1990! Thank you Jan for all that you do!!!

Also providing leadership and organization behind the scenes was Lori Hartman. Lori kept us all straight and going in the right direction! She typed, organized photos, made phone calls, proofed and reproofed, drew layouts, redesigned layouts and did just about anything that was needed to get the job done. We wouldn't have made it without you, Lori! Thanks for all your help!

To the Student Government Association Executive Council and Bill Robinson, Associate Vice Provost for Student Services, thank you for entrusting the staff with the funding and support to produce another high quality Asklepieion yearbook. Without your support, UT Memphis students would not have been able to have their valuable memories captured in this book. Thanks for believing in us and supporting our efforts.

To the students at UT Memphis, as you go about practicing the art of healing, do so with fond and pleasant memories of your days at UT. Use this book to help you relive 1990-91 over and over again. Most of all, enjoy your profession and the people who shared this time with you.

Best wishes for a very happy life,
